Description of Projects of National Significance

Under Part E of the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act, as amended by Public Law 103-230 in 1994, grants and contracts are awarded for Projects of National Significance that support the development of national and State policy to enhance the independence, productivity, and integration and inclusion of individuals with developmental disabilities through:

- Data collection and analysis;
- Technical assistance to enhance the quality of State developmental disabilities councils, protection and advocacy systems, and university affiliated programs; and
- Other projects of sufficient size and scope that hold promise to expand or improve opportunities for people with developmental disabilities, including:
 - Technical assistance for the development of information and referral systems;
 - Educating policy makers;
 - Federal interagency initiatives;
 - The enhancement of participation of racial and ethnic groups in public and private sector initiatives in developmental disabilities;
 - Transition of youth with developmental disabilities from school to adult life; and
 - Special pilots and evaluation studies to explore the expansion of programs under part B (State developmental disabilities councils) to individuals with severe disabilities other than developmental disabilities.

In accordance with Section 162(f) of the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act, as amended by Public Law 103-230 in 1994, the Administration on Developmental Disabilities, which administers the Projects of National Significance program, provides the following list of recipients of grants and contracts in each of the areas authorized in subsections (a) and (b):

Grants

- University of New Hampshire, Institute on Disability, Durham, NH—"National Home of Your Own Technical Assistance Center," a Five-Year Technical Assistance Center to facilitate broad-based systems change at State and national levels, create partnerships between agencies concerned with housing, and increase person-owned/controlled housing for persons with disabilities [a co-operative agreement]—$500,000.
